

HAI Action Workgroup

December 17, 2008, 11:00 am-12:00 noon

Audio Conference

We heard several different aims from the hospital teams at the November 21 meeting of the HAI Action Workgroup: MRSA, VAP, UTI, CLABSI, Hand Hygiene

Your targets may differ but you face many of the same challenges

- How do we figure out what works and how do we make it work here?
- How do we get everyone engaged in solving these problems?
- Once we find a solution, how do we make it last?

Bring your team and let us know

- What have you tried, what have you learned, where are you stuck?
- What should we share with the executive sponsors on our call with them?

Reconnect with colleagues from the workshop and join us for group problem solving.

- Let's engage in an active exchange of ideas to discover together what positive deviants exist among us.

Who should attend?

- Bring your whole team, even if they couldn't make the kickoff meeting. There is evidence that cooperative teams achieve at higher levels and retain information longer than learners who work alone.

Our speakers, Sharon Benjamin and Jane Taylor, will be on hand to lend their expertise to yours.

Sharon Benjamin, Ph.D., principal of Alchemy, a Washington, DC-based management consulting practice, is a proven organizational executive.

Jane Taylor, Ed.D. is an improvement advisor and learning designer for the Institute for Healthcare Improvement (IHI) who has advised more than 15 improvement Collaboratives. She was improvement advisor for the IHI's ICU Collaborative, in which the ventilator bundle and the central line bundle were developed and first piloted.
